

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY AT MEDIA FELLOWSHIP HOUSE

Media Fellowship House and With Pen in Hand Family Writing Program invite the community to come celebrate Black History at Media Fellowship House.

Twyla Simpkins, founder of The Travelin' Black History Museum, will be coming to the house to give a presentation detailing the history of African Americans.

From the beginnings in Africa, through the atrocities of the Middle Passage to Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad to African American Inventors and Inventions, come out and here the inspiring stories.

WHEN: SATURDAY, MARCH 20, 2010 AT 1:30 P.M.

WHERE: MEDIA FELLOWSHIP HOUSE
302 S. JACKSON STREET
MEDIA, PA 19063

To learn more about the program and to RSVP call Jerry at 610-565-0434.